Scalar Energy structured water

The human body consists of 67 % water. Some believe water may be the most powerful healing substance ever known to man. Each day about 2.5 liters of water is lost through normal bodily functions like breathing and perspiration. By the time you feel thirsty, the damage has already occurred. The more you know about how important water is to your health, the more you will understand why energetically charged water is the most important decision you can make today for your health.

The benefits of drinking structured water

IMPACT Health Solutions' way to structure or energize your liquids is a simple activation unit for your household that intelligently activates pure drinking water or any other liquid like milk, juice, wine and oils with Scalar Energy, unlocking their most powerful health and wellness secrets. Ordinary types of water just don't compare!

- Helps hydrate cells three times faster than ordinary water
- Assists improvements in cellular function
- Aids absorption deeply into veins and capillaries
- Helps improve circulatory system
- Promotes powerful antioxidant effects
- Supports vital cell communication
- Aids in promoting healthy intestinal flora
- Supports acceleration of nutrient and vitamin availability
- Strong bactericidal effect and enhances immune response.

Water & Metabolism

- Even MILD dehydration will slow down the body's metabolism as much as 3%.

Water & Energy Level

- Lack of water is the number one trigger of daytime fatigue.
- Research has shown that a 5% drop in body fluids will cause a 25-30% loss of energy in most people, a 15% drop causes death.

Water & Colon Health

- Drinking the equivalent of 5 glasses of water daily decreases the risk of colon cancer by 45%.

Water & Breast Health

- Drinking the equivalent of 5 glasses of water a day decreases the risk of breast cancer by 79%.

Water & Weight Loss

- Optimizing water intake allows the body to drop about 2 kg the first week because it improves bodily functions allowing the body to burn stored fat.

Water & Skin

- Lack of water and aging makes our skin become drier. Proper hydration is vital to keeping skin looking smooth, healthy and young.

Water & the Brain

- 85% of brain tissue is water and dehydration causes energy generation in the brain to decrease.
- Dehydration has been linked to depression and chronic fatigue syndrome.

Water & Joints

- Dehydrated cartilage increases friction forces to the joints, resulting in joint deterioration and pain.

Water & Back Pain

- The water stored in your spinal disc core supports approximately 75% of the upper body's weight and is dependant on the hydraulic effects of water stored there.

Water & Pregnancy

- Morning sickness can be caused by or become more intense when dehydrated. It's a signal being sent by the fetus to the mother's body that it needs more water.

Water & Blood

- Lack of water thickens blood making it difficult for the heart to pump and also shuts down capillaries making it difficult for nutrients to get to vital organs.

Water & Asthma

- Histamine levels increase with dehydration.

Simply put, our water does what no other water does. We alter the molecular structure of water without any foreign or chemical substance being introduced into the water. It imprints a vital subtle energy signature into the water, a major scientific breakthrough in water technology. It delivers health benefits so convincing that the medical fraternity is looking into it for its healing and health properties.
